

Quake city's real estate shakes up record books.
Two new large S.F projects get under way

SF Business Times
October 22-28, 1999
Page 19

BY DOULAS ROBSON

South of Market Street, the Baker Hamilton building is revving up for a summer 2000 opening. The 210,000-square-foot project at Seventh and Townsend streets has awesome views of the bay and is perfect for brick-and-timber-craving web-based companies

Marketing agent CB Richard Ellis Inc. is entertaining talks with several users. Sources said USWEB/CKS, Organic Online and Ninth House Network are taking a hard look.

Meanwhile China Basin Landing owner McCarthy Cook & Co. is steaming ahead with its plan to add three floors, or 182,000 square feet to the top of the older Berry Street building to match the six-story Wharfside building.